4. PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES
<input type="checkbox"/>	Personal Representatives: Personal representatives may file a petition for an individual who is eligible to receive payment under the Act: (1) where the eligible individual does not have the legal capacity to receive payment under the Act, as described in §130.35(e); or (2) where the eligible individual does have the capacity to receive payment under the Act, but only if the sworn statement included at the end of the petition is signed by the eligible individual.	In all cases, the personal representative must submit all medical and legal documentation required for the eligible individual.  In those cases in which the eligible individual does not have the legal capacity to receive payment under the Act, a personal representative may receive payment for a legally incompetent individual by submitting the following written documentation: (1) proof showing the eligible individual does not have the legal capacity to receive payment under the Act (e.g., a birth certificate showing that the eligible individual is a minor or other evidence showing that the eligible individual is legally incompetent); and (2) proof showing that you have the authority to receive payment for the eligible individual (e.g., proof of legal guardianship).
